

Disaster Recovery Center in Hamilton Will Close

Release Date: February 18, 2022

LACEY, Wash. –The Disaster Recovery Center (DRC) in Hamilton will close Feb. 19. Survivors of the Nov. 5 - Dec. 2, 2021 flooding, straight line winds, severe storms, landslides and mudslides can still apply for FEMA assistance by phone, online or mobile app.

The DRC at 45770 Main Street, Concrete WA 98237 is still available to assist applicants in the same vicinity in Skagit County.

Homeowners and renters in Clallam, Skagit and Whatcom counties, the Lummi Nation, Nooksack Indian Tribe, Quileute Tribe and all tribes in the designated areas can apply for FEMA assistance online at disasterassistance.gov, by calling 800-621-3362 or by using the FEMA mobile app.

Survivors can also still apply in person at other Disaster Recovery Centers operating in designated areas to help with applications and recovery information. To find the nearest center, go online to FEMA.gov/DRC or call 800-621-3362.

FEMA financial assistance may include money for temporary housing, basic home repairs or other disaster-related needs such as childcare, transportation and medical, funeral or dental expenses.

Disaster survivors have until March 7 to apply for FEMA assistance.
